

PSHCE “Life Ready Days”

West Mercia Police have managed to secure funding on behalf of Crimestoppers to run a number of sessions as part of the schools PSHCE programme. The sessions will be hosted by Crimestoppers on behalf of the ‘Fearless’ charity and run by Andrea Accison (Fearless Outreach Worker).

The purpose of the “Life Ready Days” are to immerse students in Years 7-10 highlighting the risks of Anti-social behaviour, online safety/sexting, knife crime and county lines.
